

Step – Helping students improve their pronunciation

Task

Watch Lindsay and Marie Therese talk about how to help students improve their pronunciation in online lessons. Complete the sentences with a word in each gap.

Answers

1. A teacher can get close to the camera to show the position of their mouth when producing a sound. The student can do the same to see if the position of their mouth is the same.
2. A student can record a lesson and listen back to evaluate and improve their pronunciation.
3. A teacher can use the whiteboard to show how words are linked together.
4. Students can listen and notice the pronunciation in online videos and use it to improve their own pronunciation.
5. Students can use online tools such as Macmillan's Sounds app to practise pronouncing sounds.
