

Step – Useful online listening resources

Task 1 Answers

Mary suggests TED Talks, YouTube videos and news items. She suggests that listening to a range of listening materials will help learners get used to hearing different accents, which will help them to deal with different situations better.